Why should I facilitate mobile learning?

" It is important to note that language education, teacher training policies, examinations, curriculum documents and materials have yet to catch up with and reflect the range of digital media that has become so much part of our leaners' lives and that we are in a state of transition"

2015 Kukulska-Hulme, Norris & Donahue p5 cited Walsh 2010 p212

Example #4

I used Socrative this afternoon and fell in love all over again ;-) It's great because it gives a breakdown of how many people gave each answer for each question, but of course is anonymous so you can discuss why answers are right/ wrong, and why people may have been confused without naming and shaming.
