A voice-based e-Learning tool!

Used by educators all over the world, Voxopop talkgroups are a fun, engaging and easy-to-use way to help students develop their speaking skills. They're a bit like message boards, but use voice rather than text and have a specialised user interface. No longer confined to a physical classroom, teachers and students of oral skills can interact from home, or even from opposite sides of the planet! Anywhere. Anytime.

- ✔ Language learning
- ✔ Collaboration projects
- ✔ Conversation practice
- ✔ Oral presentations

✔ Voxopop Talkgroups can be Public, Restricted or entirely Private.
