Developing Digital Skills

Bringing staff & students together
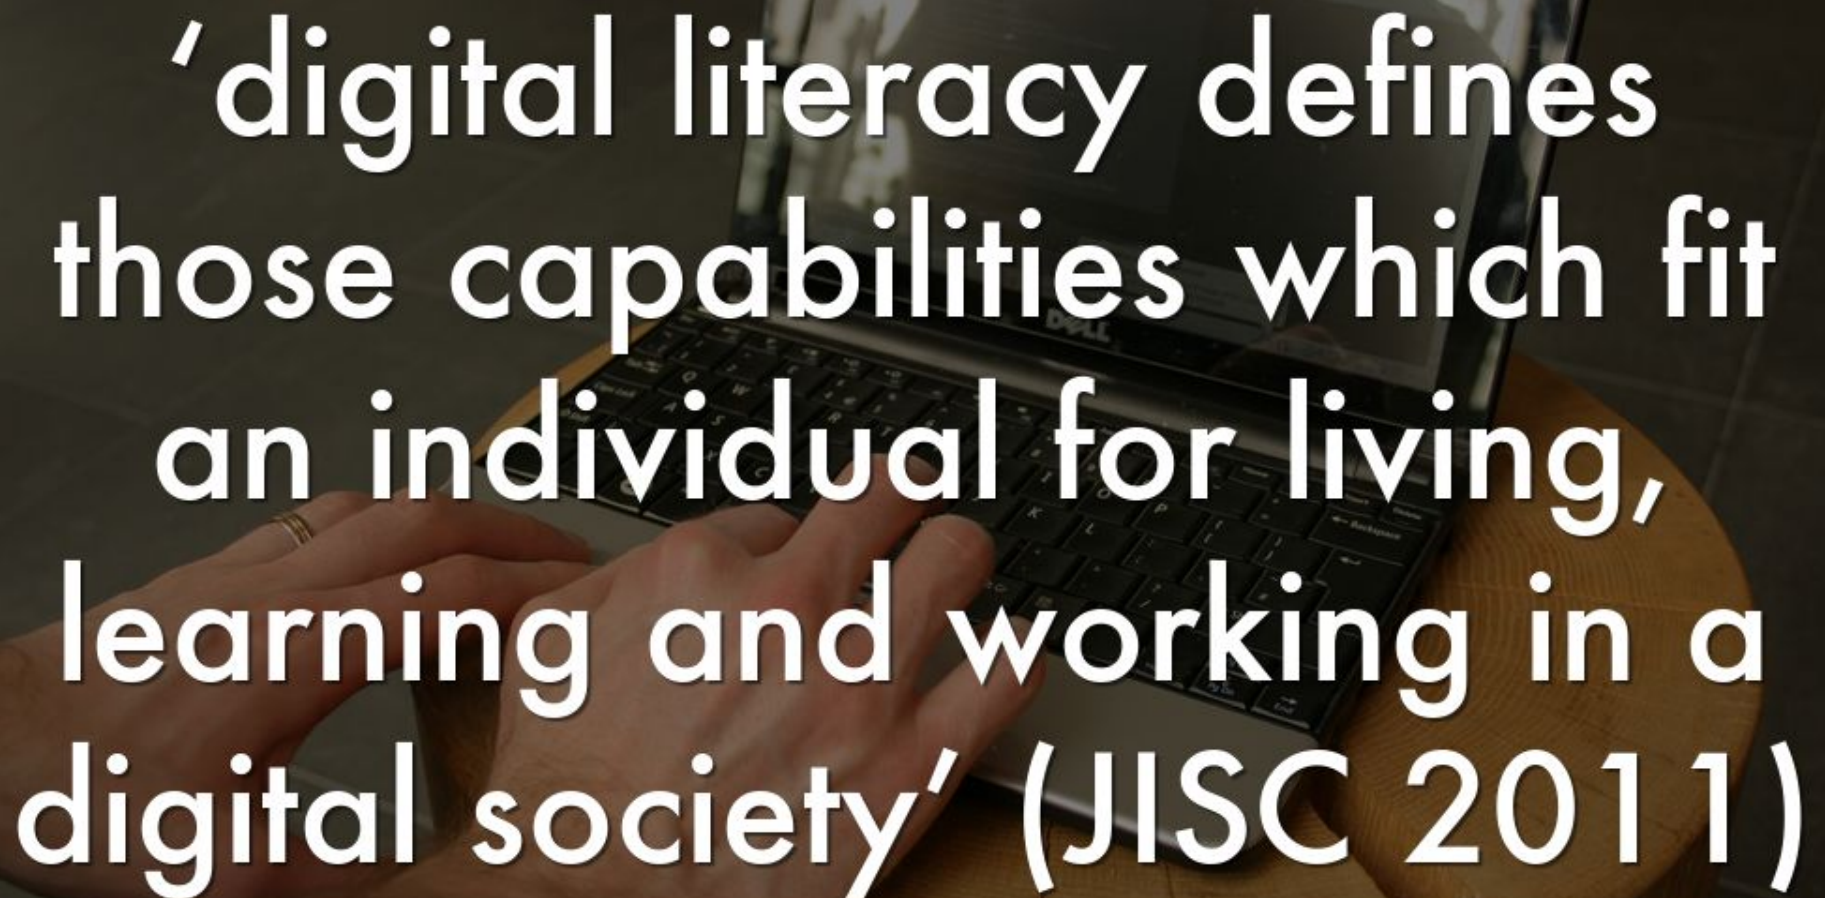

Institute for Learning Innovation & Development

Fiona Harvey|University of Southampton|

Created with Haiku Deck

What are the skills? What are the trends? What has been the impact?

'digital literacy defines those capabilities which fit an individual for living, learning and working in a digital society' (JISC 2011)

Skills for learning & teaching

- Collaborating online
- Creating content
- Communicating online effectively
- Creating effective online personas
- Critical thinking

Preparation for the Digital age?

Learning to listen?

Learning to connect

COMPANY

NEW SEASON
FASHION!

e edit
e high st

eet ritain's

zoella

4 million of you love her
- so do we

SUMMER
BIGGES
BEAUT TREND

#firstloo

What are the trends?

How will we teach?

Facilitating active learning

Flipping the class

Interactive sessions

- with anyone from anywhere
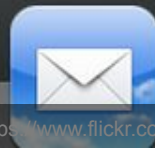

Mobile and tablet devices are creative studios in our pockets

global education

bringing students together

Massive
Open Online Courses
(MOOCs)

BIG DATA
CAN GENERATE
BIG BRAINSTORMS

Learning environments
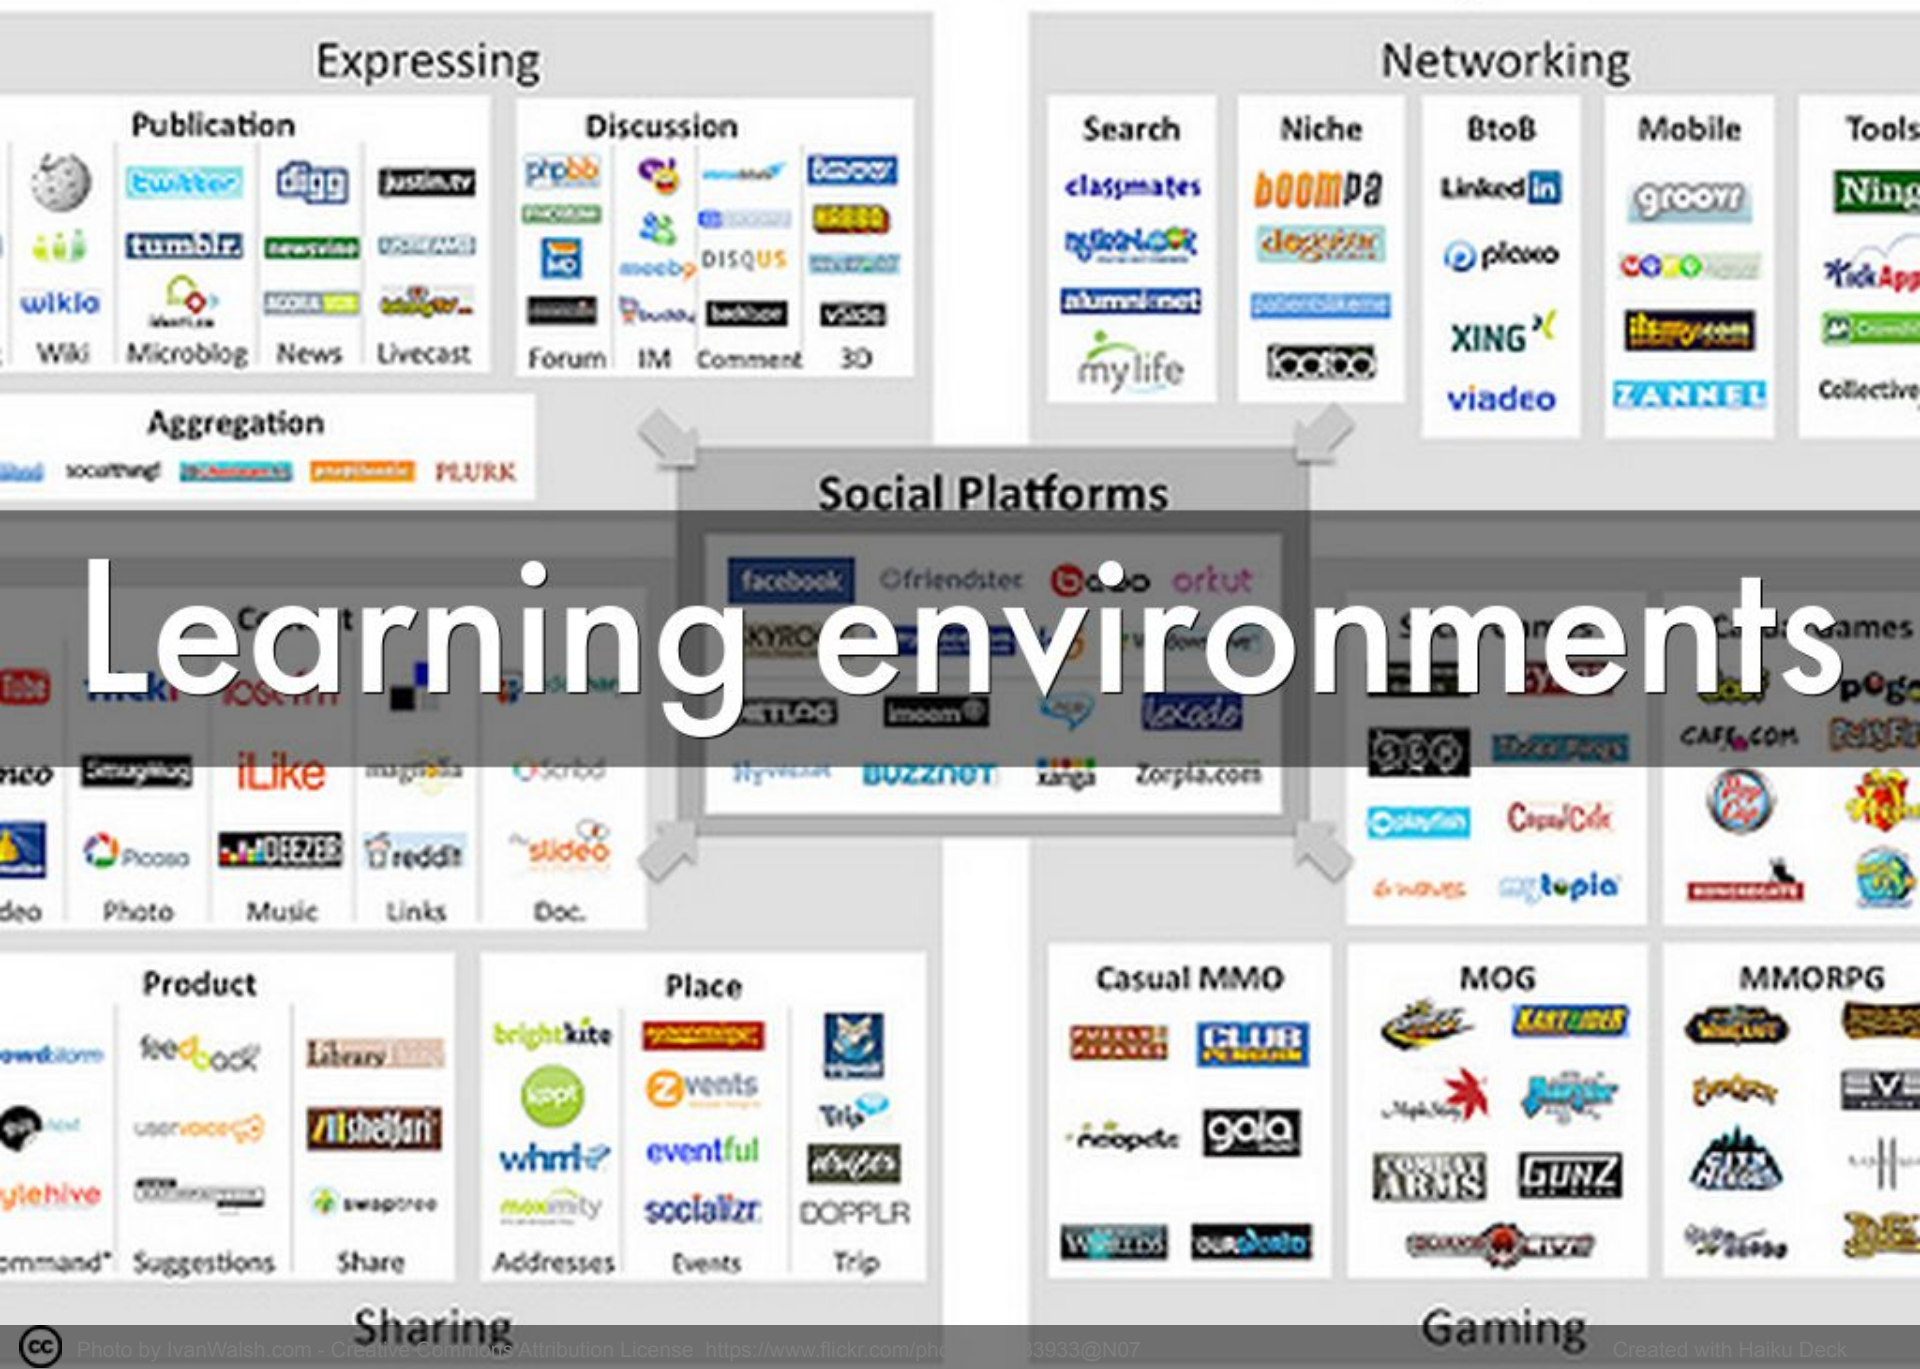

Students as change agents

Digital Champions at the University of Southampton

UNIVERSITY OF Southampton

Discover. Develop. Impact.

| pose a subject area ⌄ | I'm looking for... | 🔍 |

Discover and navigate the enormous range of opportunities available at the University of Southampton. Take opportunities that will broaden your experience, develop your skills and help you prepare for successful futures.

Please use the feedback tab on the right to let us know what you think, ahead of the official website launch in 2015!

Students as partners

- Rebekah Kulidzan presenting at #cll conference with Fiona Harvey

Students with academics to support the development of these skills

Innovation & Digital Literacies Champions

14

iChamps

10

Discipline areas

17
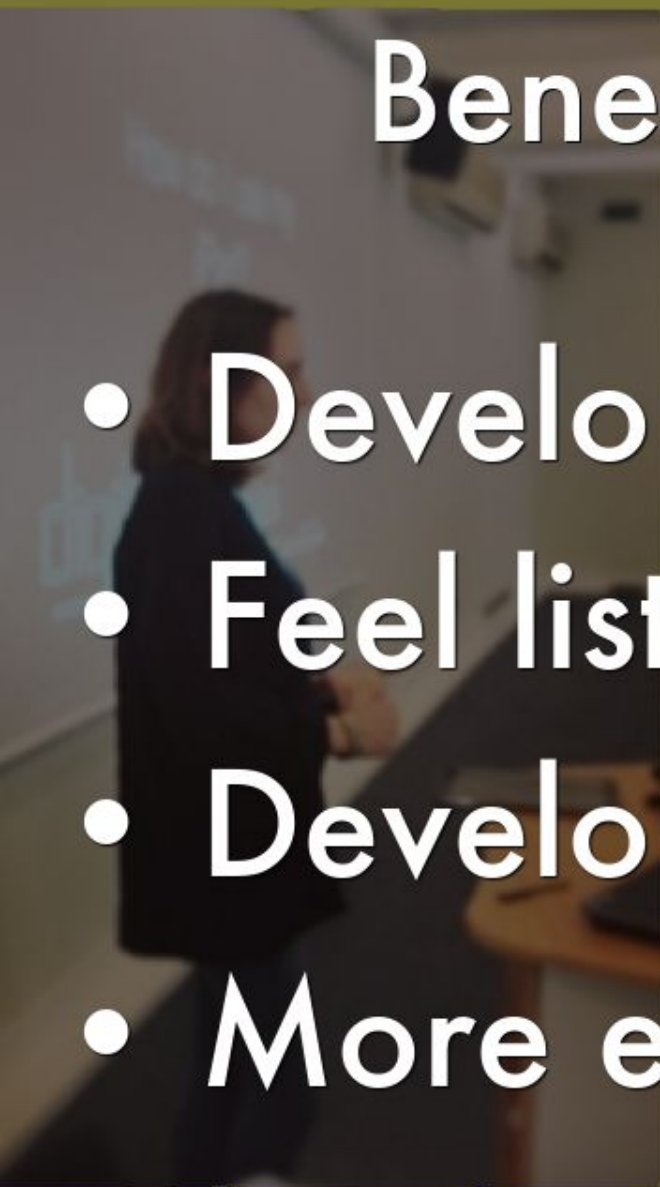

academic staff

1

VP Education
(Student Union)

Benefits for staff

- Different perspective
- New ideas with technology
- Part of a network to share ideas
- Support
- Inspirational

Benefits for students

- Develop skills
- Feel listened to
- Develop digital skills
- More engaged
- Inspirational

How does it work?

- Students are identified
- Needs identified
- Roles clarified between staff and students
- Support sessions
- Communication range of channels

Diverse range of activities - both formal and informal

Developing skills - genuinely working together

iChamp Digital Badge to recognise contribution to the university community

Student/Staff responsibilities

- Stay in touch with each other
- Support development with ILIaD resources
- Communication is key
- Share what you do
- Attend events - iPAD Coffee Clubs

"Rebekah's training sessions on blogging improved student performance on those assignments. "
– Russell Bentley (Assistant Pro Vice Chancellor Education)
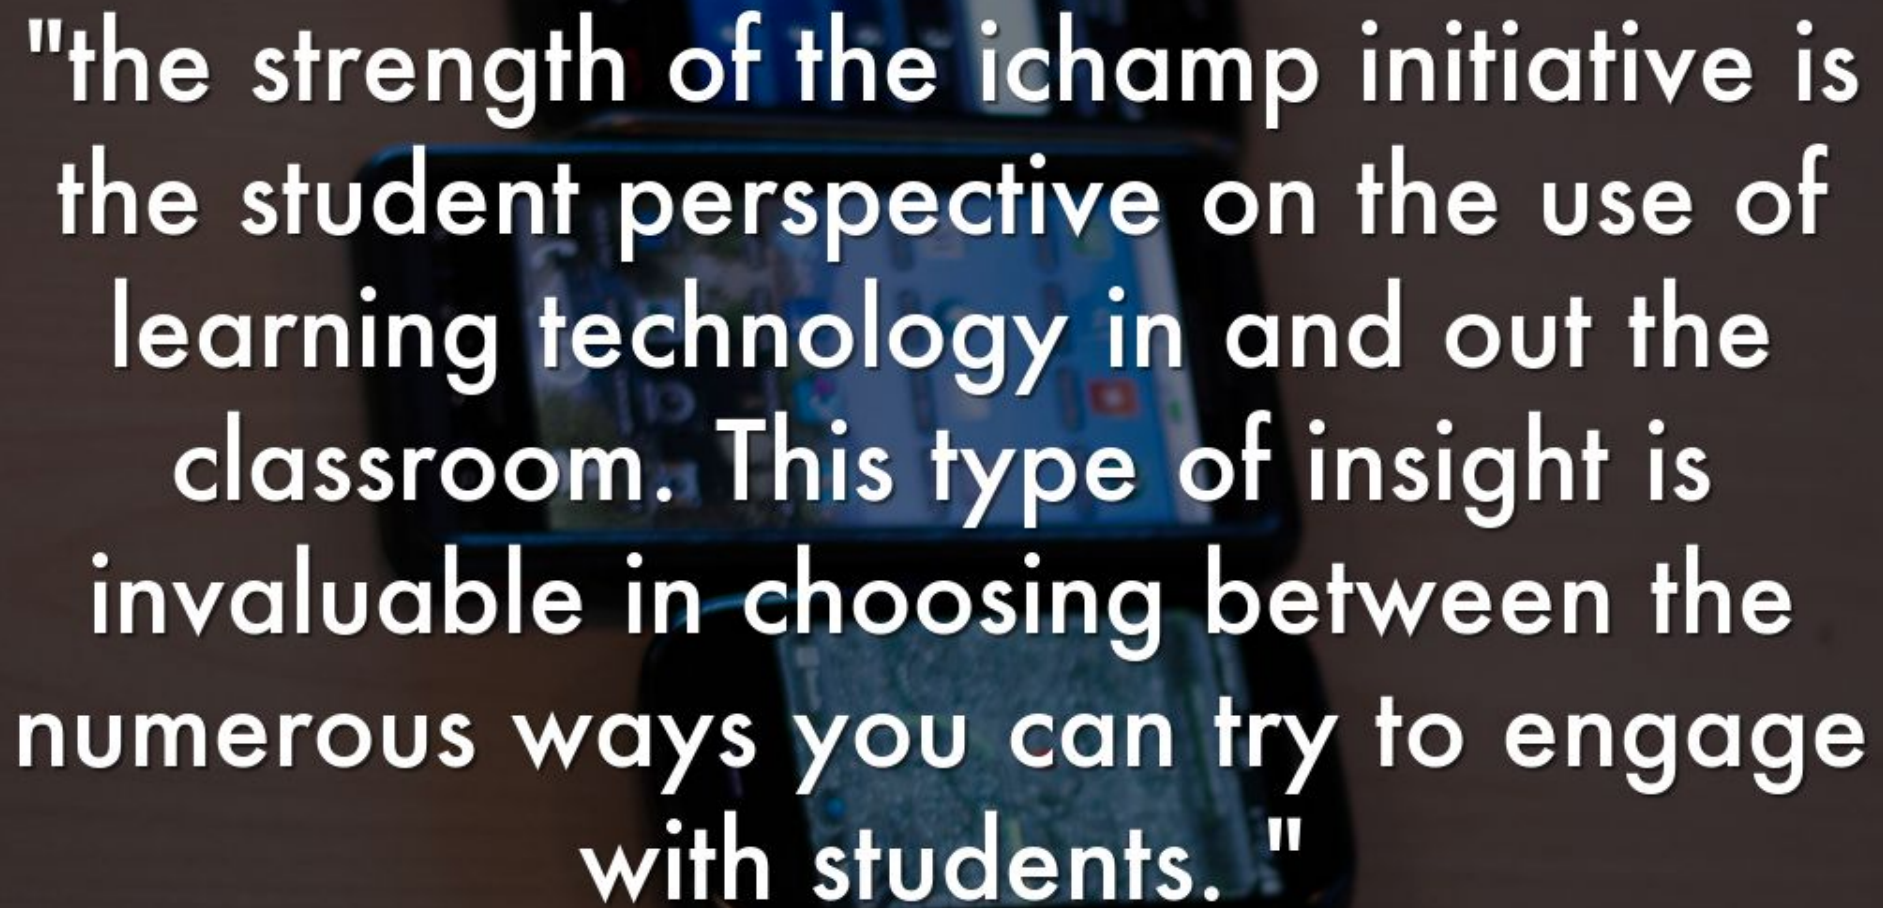

"the strength of the ichamp initiative is the student perspective on the use of learning technology in and out the classroom. This type of insight is invaluable in choosing between the numerous ways you can try to engage with students. "

- Scott Border, Senior Teaching Fellow

"Redesigning our website with us provided much more than just technical support - a careful eye for detail and the theme/message to be communicated by the website for the research centre"
Will Jennings, Senior Lecturer

"Their report was... integral to developing our view of what we needed to refresh our own academic skills online provision, which has led to an Opportunity project & development in the library" - Anna Barney, Associate Dean

Questions?

@fionajharvey